The use of the word "may" in new rule 4(3) is more appropriate both in respect of applications made for the first time and for renewal. The rule as worded does not affect the proviso to section 6(4) of the Act. Under that proviso if the applications are made after the expiry of the period prescribed in the rule a licence fee at double the rates will have to be paid. The view taken by Secretary, Development Department is correct. There is no substance in the contention urged by the Registrar of Money-lenders, Kolhapur.

A revised draft notification is sent herewith.

2. Sub-section (1) of section 19-A of the Bombay Money-lenders Act, 1946, has been recently amended by Bombay Act XIII of 1951, whereby the following words are added to the sub-section, namely:

"or in respect of copies of statements supplied to him under sub-section (2A) of section 18."

Sub-section (2A) of section 18, also recently inserted in the principal Act by the amending Act of 1951, provides for a enabling money-lenders permitted by Government to deliver to the Assistant Registrar periodical statements. In view of the recent proposal of Government to permit certain money-lenders to deliver periodical statements, it is for consideration of the Development Department whether a rule should not be made for prescribing rates of fees also in respect of such statements.
